David Ruddle, thebestof Eastbourne

A five-star rating!

"Having moved to Eastbourne a couple of years ago, I found 'thebestof Eastbourne' and have been impressed with the way it promotes all that is best in Eastbourne, the many offerings, groups, organisations and services. It is an excellent source of information.

In addition, also with the professional way it is operated. David has managed to pull together many strands which are charitable as well as commercial and that is no mean feat.

That is why 'thebestof Eastbourne' gets a 5-star rating from me. Oh, David Ruddle is highly approachable and, as they say, a service is as good as the person who leads it, so if I could, he would get a 5-star rating too."
