R12. Doctor’s Creek Pioneer Block 14, Pinot Noir 2010, South Island, New Zealand 13.5%			£30.50
Aromas of black cherry, mocha tinged berry fruits and spice with a hint of anise and cedar. Excellent concentration and richness on the palate which is literally bursting with lush Pinot fruits, cherry, plum, spice and cedar. Opulent tannins - a top example of Marlborough Pinot.

- R13. Anticura Cabernet Merlot, 2004 Valle De Uco, Mendoza, Argentina, 15% £32.00
Twelve months in oak, this resplendent wine just keeps coming with dark, ripe fruit, plums, cherries, boysenberries with a little hints of tobacco and eucalyptus. The wine has a rock hard backbone anchored with firm tannins and a sumptuous, long lasting finish. Must try!!!!
- R14. Antiyal Kuyen 2009, Exotic Blend, Maipo Valley, Chile 14.50% £33.00
40% Syrah, 37% Cabernet Sauvignon, 21% Carmenère, and 2% Petit Verdot. There's loads of ripe, rich red fruit on the nose and palate with red raspberry notes and a hint of coffee beans. The palate is lush with beautiful, fresh red plum and berry fruit. Long finish!!
- R15. Frescobaldi Nipozzano Chianti Rufina Riserva 2009, Sangiovese 90%, Tuscany, Italy, 13.50% £34.75
Strong aromas of black currant, leather, dried herbs, menthol, cranberry and wild berries. Palate reveals fantastic sour berry and apple, lots of dried herbs just like the nose and a little black pepper. This wine has a smooth and silky texture but still retains the signature rough edge of a top Chianti. Sweet and chewy tannins leads into the very long finish
- R16. Château Musar 2005, Bekaa Valley, Lebanon 13.0% £43.00
On the nose it is very true to Musar form, showing deliciously sweet fruit nuanced with cloves, with a dried and spicy character. Plenty of apples too. On the palate, still youthful and richly imbued with structure, lots of dried fruit to the fore. Will benefit greatly from being decanted. Musar is a chameleon and when drunk over the course of a meal changes in character.
- R17. Chateau Cantenac Brown, Brio de Cantenac, 2008 Margaux, France 13.0% £55.00
The second wine of Cantenac Brown, this is a classic Bordeaux blend of 60% Cabernet Sauvignon, 30% Merlot and 10% Cabernet Franc. Beautiful black fruit, slightly chocolaty nose with a hint of toasted bread, the spicy soft entry is followed by a subtle play of quite ripe tannins.
- R18. Domaine de la Solitude La Reserve Secrete Chateau Neuf du Pape, Syrah Grenache, France 13.5% £140.00
96 Robert Parker's Wine Advocate points. Kicks off with an awesome nose of creme de cassis, graphite, kirsch, liquorice, and vanilla soaring from the glass of this saturated ruby/purple-colored wine. Enjoy an extravagantly rich palate of sumptuous dark chocolate, blackberries, mineral, leather, and smoke and much else, leading into a seductive finish.
- R19. Penfold's Grange Bin 95 1999, Shiraz, South Australia 14.0% £290.00
Stunning, rich, full-bodied cult Shiraz. Deep ruby beginning to turn brick at the edges. Lots of mint and eucalyptus on the nose, which carry through to the palate, full-bodied, big, Australian Shiraz characteristics, followed by sweet black fruit, some tannic dustiness, and a smooth, long finish. Real class. Some rate this as the finest Shiraz in the world.
