The Jungle International Women's Day Conference

on 10th March 2014 is an absolute must for any business women's schedule. Why?

Because you will laugh, you will learn, and you will come away full ideas, inspiration and hope.

International Women's Day

The theme for International Women's day 2014 is 'inspiring change' and our vision for those women who attend our conference is for them to leave feeling at least 'ten feet taller' than when they arrived having picked up some top tips, been inspired, gained new skills and made new connections during the day.

We are still finalising our full agenda for the day, but here's what you can expect.....

PS - If you book before February 14th you can join us for £75 + VAT (damn VAT!) and we promise you won't regret it.

What to expect

You can expect a day that will leave you full of energy, brimming with confidence and fresh ideas having had many epiphany moments during the day.

You will meet and make friends with the most diverse range of female entrepreneurs, business owners, and Senior Leaders from across the UK.

You can expect to attend sessions with women experts who will be focusing enhancing your Personal effectiveness (through communication and colour) giving you practical skills, tools and techniques which you can apply immediately.

You will also hear from inspirational and motivating women who have 'broken with tradition' and an International Award Winning women who has forged ahead to live their business and personal dreams. They will share with you their tips, insights and expertise enabling you to take away some inspirational nuggets so you can walk away 'inspired to change'

The event is being organised by UK Female Entrepreneur Ambassador, Teresa Boughey, founder of Jungle an Award Winning Consultancy. During the conference Teresa will be delivering a session on limiting beliefs and how they can hold you back, as well as launching Jungle's new JEWEL programme ('Jungle Executive Women's Excellence Leadership' Programme)
