TESTIMONIAL

This is a testimonial for Clare Handsaker (C.Z. Handsaker) who provided a good quality service for my friend.

Last week my friend was telling me that he has to go to his aunt's funeral, but does not have any idea where to purchase flowers for that or how to go about it. It was very difficult time for him and I decided to help by calling Clare and asking her advice.

She provided several options and once decided the flowers were delivered as agreed with very reasonable price.

Clare had a massive cold during that time, but regardless of that, she still managed to deliver, which shows how reliable she is.

Clare was very compassionate, helpful and precise, which all that is needed in difficult times.

Thank you,
