CLOVER CONSERVATORIES AND CONSTRUCTION LTD READ OUR 5* REVIEWS FROM 2015

In May 2015, Maureen T said about Clover...

‘As I wasn’t living on site during the work it was very reassuring to hear from several of my neighbors how hard – working, considerate and polite the Clover team were. Nothing was too much trouble and I am delighted with the renovation of my new home.’

‘Although we had to wait for Clover to fit our new wood burner because of their commitments elsewhere, the waiting was worth it. Once we had accepted the quote, the time schedule that Simon had explained to us did happen on time. The grate had to be enlarged to accept the new burner and this was completed with the upmost professionalism and surprising speed. Clover had recommended a local granite suppliers and fitters and they also did a sterling job of the surround. Simon then fitted the chimney liner and the "Aduro" wood burner was installed with the aid of two of Clover's trusty employees. Simon gave us a full demonstration of how the "Aduro" operated and the whole place was left clean and tidy. A special mention must be made to Jo and Helen who organise the office procedures for Clover who kept us in the loop the whole way through the process. We'd like to thank all concerned at Clover that had an input into the seamless alterations and fitting of our new "Aduro" wood burner. If anyone reading this is thinking of having house alterations or specifically wood burning stove fitted, then we would not hesitate in recommending Clover.

‘Clover produced an excellent standard of work and were flexible in making changes / improvements as work progressed. Well planned progress throughout. Polite, punctual, cheerful workforces who encompassed suggestions. Sensibly priced with no quibbling, I have NO hesitation in recommending Clover to anyone and I have already done so privately. Well Done.
