An atmosphere filled with the sounds of Latin American music

All within a truly Latin al fresco setting of terracota tiles, borders of flowers and herbs giving that Latin aroma in the evening air

And the crowning glory our mural of the Andean skyline and distinct calla lilies whose vibrant colours brighten even the dulllest day
