A splendid conclusion to this season's concerts - Aberdeen Chamber Music Concerts

A major rediscovery. Ensemble Burletta have a natural feeling for the ebb and flow of Gál's style. Warmly recommended – Gramophone Magazine

Exciting and innovative performers, Ensemble Burletta excel at thoughtful, creative programming. Formed in 2015 to explore the forgotten music of Hans Gál, their 2016 world premier recording of Gál's clarinet quintet for Toccata Classics received glowing reviews in the Gramophone Magazine and they continue to delight audiences across the country. Its members have performed in the Wigmore Hall, Royal Albert Hall, Southbank Centre, the Barbican and broadcast on BBC Radio 3. They have given concerts in Europe, South Africa, New Zealand, China, South America and Canada, performed in the Kuhmo Chamber Music Festival in Finland, and the Sani International and Demetria Festivals in Greece. During 2020 Ensemble Burletta are performing concerts titled 'Farewell to Vienna: A New Beginning' as part of the Insiders Outsiders Festival, an arts festival celebrating the contribution of refugees from Nazi Europe to British culture.
