Do you like singing? Would you like to sing in a choir? Why not join us?

Bexhill Choral Society is a friendly and enthusiastic non-audition choir, which always welcomes new members. We sing 'classical' choral music but with a repertoire ranging from Baroque to the Beatles! We rehearse on Wednesday evenings, usually at Little Common Community Centre, and perform at various Bexhill venues.

We put on 3 concerts a year, including our very popular Christmas concert. Our Director of Music is renowned local musician and conductor Kenneth Roberts, with well-known pianist and organist Nigel Howard as accompanist. You can hear us on YouTube. And as well as our concerts, we put on other musical and social events, and people generally seem to find us a friendly lot!

Anyone interested in joining the choir is welcome to attend a few rehearsals free of charge to see if it's for them. There is increasing evidence that singing in a choir brings real health, emotional and social benefits, as well as enjoyment, so why not give it a try?

Or if you're more of a listener than a singer, come along to our concerts! You might like to consider becoming a 'Friend of Bexhill Choral Society' - Friends pay an annual membership subscription of £25.00 that entitles them to a discount of £2 each on the price of two tickets for each concert.
