WELCOME

May is almost upon us which means we have another feast of fantastic productions to keep you entertained at The Quay throughout the summer.

Highlights include a first visit from Britain's Got Talent favourite and king of the misheard lyric Ben Langley, who drops in this August, whilst the return of veteran humorous songsmith Richard Digance is bound to prove popular. For music lovers The Bookshop Band bring their spellbinding songs, all inspired by novels, to The Quay stage in July whilst magician Michael Jordan promises Magic and Marvels for all ages this May.

We are particularly delighted to announce Entertaining Henry a pop up festival about the life and times of Henry The Eighth which is a Quay Theatre Co-production with The Beyond Shakespeare Podcast and consists of three evenings of drama, history and humour this June.

Our usual programme of touring drama includes There Is A Light and Whistle For Attracting Attention from Play Nicely Theatre and Extra Ordinary from Behind The Door Productions. Both are hard-hitting and pertinent contemporary tales for our time but classics are also covered in the form of Dot Productions Sense and Sensibility and The Strange Case of Dr Jekyll and Mr Hyde from Isosceles Theatre.

For younger theatregoers there are no fewer than SEVEN productions to choose from featuring storytelling, bubbles, magic, painting, poetry and plenty of fun. Be sure to check out the fantastic Wonderland from Theatrix Arts featuring when you'll even be able to make your own puppet to take home.

To top it all off we have tributes to Coldplay, The Rolling Stones, Bruce Springsteen and Bob Dylan & Joni Mitchell whilst Hollywood—Legends of Rock promises the 'hair metal' hits of the 1980s and much more.

Thank you so much for your continued support, the team look forward to seeing you soon.

IN A NUTSHELL

Established over 30 years ago, the Quay Theatre Summer School is a Suffolk based theatre course for children and young adults, 8-16. Over the course of one week, the students will learn new skills & hone existing ones in workshops from our team of industry experts, including acting, improv & movement, musical theatre & stagecraft. The week culminates in two performances of an original show scripted by the directors with plenty of input from the students too.

THE SHOW FRIDAY 6:30PM SATURDAY 2:00PM

This year the show is called MYTHS & LEGENDS and features a series of short scenes based around that theme. From Big Foot to Banksy, expect the unexpected in a show that will be largely comic.

NEVER PERFORMED BEFORE?

No problem! The Summer School is just as much for those who have never stepped on stage, as it is for those who have treaded the boards countless times before – all abilities welcome.

CLASSES & WORKSHOPS

Throughout the week, there are a number of general acting & stagecraft classes as well as workshops on Voice and Stagecraft and Movement & Song. Plus, as always, expect plenty of games, humour and a healthy dose of silliness – mainly from the directors!

WHO CAN ATTEND?

We pride ourselves on being an inclusive course! Attendees can be anywhere from 9-16-years-old, and we welcome total beginners to seasoned performers. There really is something for everyone! We welcome children & young adults from all backgrounds; quite often, the week is as much about building friendships and developing confidence, as it is the final show.
