

Join us at the Belgrade Theatre, Coventry on Saturday 6 September 2025 to

MOVE, SING and DESIGN

Free workshops led by members of the 'Songs for Survivors of the 21st Century' creative team

MOVE with Mark Evans

10.30am – 12noon

Weston Learning Space

Learn how to use movement to create character, mood and story using themes from our new opera theatre project as a starting point. The workshop will encourage you to express your ideas playfully in a safe and welcoming space. Please wear loose comfortable clothing that you can move easily in.

SING with Marcela Campaña

12.45pm – 2.15pm

Weston Learning Space

Learn how to connect and communicate with an audience singing songs from our new opera theatre project. The workshop will develop your singing technique and help you to explore your voice with confidence, whatever your starting point.

DESIGN with Nancy Surman

2.30pm – 4pm

Weston Learning Space

Learn ways to design for live performance using text from our new opera theatre project as your inspiration. The workshop will cover how you can generate exciting ideas for set and costume design. All materials provided.

Suitable for everyone aged 16+. No experience necessary.

Only 15 places are available for each workshop.

Book now for 1, 2 or all 3 of the workshops by scanning this QR code or using this Eventbrite link: <https://songs-for-survivors-of-the-21st-century-workshops.eventbrite.co.uk>

For more information about our brand new opera theatre project rooted in Coventry communities visit: www.songsforsurvivorsofthe21stcentury.wordpress.com