WELCOME

We are delighted to present our Autumn Season Programme for your delectation. Highlights coming up include the comic stylings of Rich Hall, a fascinating evening in the company of mountaineer Simon Yates and, fresh from Channel 4's Narrow Escapes, Joel Sander's tales of life as an Angry Boater.

We have return visits from comedian Lee Hurst and acclaimed concert pianist James Lisney whilst the multitalented, multi instrumentalist Sunto Susso makes his first appearance at The Quay bringing with him the enchanting sounds of the kora a 22 string harp with which he creates his unique folk sound.

Eastern Angles bring their production of John Godber's Teechers to Sudbury in October whilst Penned Up is a cross between Porridge and Brassed Off focusing on a group of prisoners tasked with writing plays. Laughs and tears will be served up in equal measures.

For our younger audiences, Adventures In Science from Crafty Fools is a must for October half term whilst Dame Dolly Returns with her One Person Panto as 2026 dawns.

Responding to popular demand we have added further cinema screenings to our programme, notably the tour documentary, John Cleese Packs It In with plenty more to follow.

Finally, be sure to check out our specially curated 2nd Annual Spooky Season which runs throughout October and comprises gothic drama, crazily creepy family laughs, ghost stories, Halloween delights for children, the ninth Horrorthon film festival and a screening of Nosferatu with a brand new score performed live.

We look forward to seeing you soon.
