

Foodies Festival Celebrates 21 Years with Biggest, Family-Friendly London Event Yet at Syon Park - 23- 25 May 2026!

The much-loved Foodies Festival returns to Syon Park from 23–25 May for its biggest and most exciting London edition to date - with a packed programme designed for all ages.

Marking over two decades as the UK's largest and longest-running touring food, drink and music festival, this special anniversary year brings together brand-new attractions, headline music acts, star chefs and bakers, alongside a strong showcase of local culinary and musical talent - all set within the stunning surroundings of Syon Park.

Following record-breaking visitor numbers in 2025, the festival returns with even more to explore, offering a vibrant, family-friendly weekend where food lovers, families and groups of friends can come together to enjoy a true day out. From live cooking demonstrations and artisan markets to hands-on activities and plenty of space to relax, Foodies Festival is designed to be enjoyed by everyone - including four-legged friends.

TV Favourites, Local Talent and Live Cooking

Across the weekend, visitors can enjoy a packed schedule of live demonstrations in the renowned Chefs Theatre and Cake & Bake Theatre, featuring stars from MasterChef, The Great British Bake Off and Great British Menu, alongside some of the most exciting chefs from the local area.

Confirmed names appearing at Syon Park include

- Claire Syrenne – MasterChef 2025 Finalist
 - Henry Philips – MasterChef 2025
 - Day Radley – The Vegan Chef School
- Dhruv Baker – Celebrity Chef, Author & MasterChef Champion
 - Jacqueline Wise – BBQ Chef
 - Jason Howard – Great British Menu 2025
 - Shahnaaz Ayub – Chef and Radio Host
 - Thuy Diem Pham – Author and Chef
- Amber Francis – Great British Menu Champion of Champions
 - Radhika Howarth – Author and TV Chef

Alongside these headline names, a host of local chefs, bakers and producers will take centre stage, celebrating the diversity and creativity of the local food scene and offering visitors the chance to discover new favourites.

Live Music and Festival Atmosphere

When the cooking ends, the festival continues into the evening with a lively programme of live music and entertainment, creating a true festival atmosphere in the heart of West London.

Headline performances across the weekend include Scouting For Girls, Boyzlife, and Gareth Gates' much-loved "Boyband in the Park", bringing feel-good energy, singalong favourites and a nostalgic soundtrack to the celebrations.

With music running throughout the day and into the evening, visitors can enjoy everything from relaxed daytime sets to high-energy headline performances - making it just as appealing for groups of friends as it is for families looking for a full day out.

A Perfect Day Out for Families

Foodies Festival at Syon Park goes beyond great food and music, offering a wide range of activities designed especially with families in mind.

Younger visitors can get hands-on at the Kids Cookery School, enjoy the fun of the fairground, and explore interactive experiences across the festival site, while parents can relax and soak up the atmosphere knowing there's something for everyone to enjoy.

For those feeling adventurous, the ever-popular Chilli Challenge and the fiery Fire Stage hosted by Channel 4's Jacqueline Wise add excitement, while spacious green areas, street food villages and seating zones make it easy to spend the whole day exploring at your own pace.

With a relaxed, welcoming environment and plenty to see, taste and do, it's the perfect way to bring together all generations - from young children to seasoned food lovers.

Foodies Festival at Syon Park isn't just an event - it's a celebration.

Come hungry, bring your friends and family, and join the party as Foodies raises a glass to 21 years of great food, live music and unforgettable moments.

For more information, interviews or media passes please contact

Contact

Head of PR and Marketing – Jo-Anna Sell

Email – jo@foodiesfestival.com

Phone – 00 44 7841 978442

Images - Images