Gaetano Donizetti

LUCIA DI LAMMERMOOR

Forbidden love. Family betrayal. Tragedy.

Lucia loves Edgardo, the enemy of her family, but her brother's determination to force her into a marriage of convenience has devastating consequences. Inspired by Sir Walter Scott's novel The Bride of Lammermoor, a tale of family feud and bloody murder, Donizetti transforms the story in his celebrated 1835 opera.

Donizetti's score combines soaring melody with intense dramatic emotion, culminating in Lucia's iconic 'Mad Scene'. A cornerstone of the operatic repertoire, the title role demands breathtaking vocal agility and expression.

Sung in English, our production features soprano Camilla Jeppeson as Lucia and American tenor Oswaldo Iraheta as her forbidden love. Lewis Gaston conducts the Guildford Opera Chorus and Chamber Orchestra in this unmissable musical treat.
