Description/Terms and Conditions

The gift our male clients choose for themselves, find out why our clients travel down from London to enjoy an Indian Champissage. A surprisingly thorough massage of the upper back, neck and shoulders, head and face following Ayurvedic principles; this oil free treatment is performed over light clothing whilst you remain comfortably seated in a chair. Wonderful for alleviating anxiety and reducing pain, this sensational experience calms an overactive mind, improving focus in times of stress. The therapeutic benefits are perfect for all men (and particularly enjoyed by bashful fathers-in-law), this has become the firm favourite of our intellectually athletic clientele.
