Description/Terms and Conditions

For a limited time, On Fire Marketing is offering their Social Media MOT for a reduced rate of £25, no strings attached! Usual price £49.99.

When you're running a business, you're always juggling and it's often the social media ball that gets dropped.

If you've limited resources, it can be hard to know where to concentrate your efforts and identify what's working well.

Luckily, On Fire Marketing's Social Media MOT can help!

The principle is the same as your annual car test; by looking at specific areas and seeing how each part runs, you get an insight into how well your whole machine is running – and you even get 'advisories' for things that aren't working so well!
