Description/Terms and Conditions

A quick check now could save you years of hassle and hidden costs.

We recently spoke with a business about to lock into a 7-year telecoms deal packed with unnecessary charges. Unfortunately, it is not unusual. That is why we are now offering a free, no-obligation contract review for local businesses.

If you are about to sign a new agreement, or even just considering one, send it over. We will take a look and let you know if it is competitive. If it looks good, we will say so. If not, we will explain why and what your options are.

No pressure. No jargon. Just clear, honest advice from a local team that has been supporting Eastbourne businesses since 2013.
